

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. P R E F A C E.

THIS CATALOGUE describes the books added by purchase or gift to the Library of the Royal Academy of Arts, from the publication of the Catalogue issued in 1877 by the late Mr. S. A. HART, R.A., down to the year 1900, and includes the further accessions made during the librarianship of Mr. HART, to his death in 1881, those acquired by the advice of Mr. J. E. HODGSON, R.A., who occupied the office from 1881 to 1895, and those added since the present librarian commenced his duties in 1896.

The literature connected with the fine arts extends to so vast an accumulation of books, many of them being of small permanent value, that a well-considered system of selection is absolutely necessary in order that the Library may properly serve its main purpose of administering to the requirements of the Members and Students of the Academy. The aim of the Council and successive librarians has been to form a collection of the best ancient and modern treatises in all languages on the theory, history, criticism and practice of the arts of Painting, Sculpture, Architecture and Engraving; of catalogues and descriptions of exhibitions, museums, and galleries, private and public; of the literary works and biographies of great artists; of books on costume, archæology, ancient buildings, tombs, sculptured monuments, enamels, gems, mosaics, coins and medals, personal ornaments, dresses and lace, utensils and furniture which show decorative design, decoration of all kinds, and on anatomy for the use of artists.

Mr. HART, to whose learning and unwearied labours the collection owes so much, in his 'Observations on the Contents of the Library' prefixed to the Catalogue of 1877, laid stress on "the necessity of making the Library a factor in the teaching power worthy of a College of Art," and this intention, which was conscientiously kept in view by the late librarian Mr. HODGSON, has been followed by his successor.

The Catalogue has been arranged after the same plan as that of 1877, to which it forms a supplement. It is alphabetical under Authors, with an ample system of cross-references; and under each country, town and place references are supplied to every work connected with the name. Under each artist is grouped the literature specially relating to him. A certain number of works of reference and other books chiefly in general literature, not strictly of an artistic character, are not included.

To this alphabetical author-catalogue it is hoped that there may be added an analytical subject-index to the whole collection.

The etchings, prints and engravings are described in a separate catalogue.

The writer has the agreeable duty of recognising the valuable aid that Mr. HENRY R. TEDDER, the Secretary and Librarian of the Athenæum Club, has given in the task of editing and superintending the publication of this volume.
